ENEL REPURCHASES NOTES FOR AN AGGREGATE NOMINAL AMOUNT OF 750,007,000 EUROS

Offer made as part of Enel's strategy to optimise its liabilities structure by way of active management of maturities and debt service costs.

Rome, January 21st, 2016 – Enel S.p.A. (“Enel”) announces that, following the voluntary non-binding tender offer launched on January 14th, 2016 and concluded on January 20th, 2016 for the repurchase for cash of up to an aggregate nominal amount of 500,000,000 euros of two series of notes previously issued by Enel, the company will purchase those notes for an aggregate nominal amount of 750,007,000 euros. Enel has exercised the option to increase the aggregate nominal amount that was initially foreseen, in line with the offer documentation.

Specifically, Enel has allocated the nominal amount repurchased as follows: 591,088,000 euros in nominal amount to repurchasing the notes maturing on June 20th, 2017 (“2017 Notes”), following the application of a 92.5715% scaling factor and 158,919,000 euros in nominal amount to repurchasing the notes maturing on June 12th, 2018 (“2018 Notes”), following the application of a 100% scaling factor.

The offer was made as part of Enel's strategy to optimise its liabilities structure by way of active management of maturities and debt service costs.

Details of the transaction are presented in the table below.

2017 Notes	Nominal amount repurchased	Purchase yield	Purchase price	Accrued interest	Nominal amount outstanding after the settlement date	Scaling factor
