ENEL LAUNCHES INTERNAL CROWDFUNDING CAMPAIGN FOR SOLIDARITY INITIATIVES AIMED AT THE THIRD SECTOR

- The top management will allocate part of their remuneration to support projects aimed at fighting COVID-19

Rome April 15th, 2020 – Enel's Chairman Patrizia Grieco and CEO Francesco Starace, have launched an internal crowdfunding campaign, together with all of the Enel Group's top managers, through which they will allocate part of their remuneration to solidarity initiatives.

The funds collected will be disbursed in favor of third sector associations that are particularly active in helping the people most affected by the social emergency caused by COVID-19.

The Group's non-profit organization, Enel Cuore, will participate in this campaign and match the funds collected by top managers, hence doubling the amount.
