ENEL ONCE AGAIN A LEADER IN INSTITUTIONAL INVESTOR MAGAZINE'S "ALL-EUROPE EXECUTIVE TEAM" RANKINGS

- In the Utilities category, Enel ranked first in terms of CEO, Investor Relations professional, ESG practices; in terms of CFO Enel ranked first for sell-side analysts

Rome, October 15th, 2021 – Enel was among the European companies that most impressed investors during this challenging year, according to Institutional Investor magazine's 2021 "All-Europe Executive Team" ranking. The magazine's seventeenth annual survey asked investors and analysts to rate the region's top executives and Investor Relations programs. In the Utilities category, Enel ranked first in terms of CEO, Investor Relations professional, as well as Environmental, Social and Governance (ESG) practices. In terms of CFO, Enel ranked first for sell-side analysts.

"Working with such a skilled team of colleagues who continuously embrace the company's mission with passion, it is no wonder our leadership is recognized by analysts and investors. Our confirmation once again in this ranking underscores our strong commitment to designing and communicating a model that sees business and sustainability as two inseparable concepts, deeply embedded in Enel's business model," said Enel CEO and General Manager Francesco Starace.

Institutional Investor is a leading international B2B publisher, focused primarily on international finance. It publishes premium journalism, newsletters and research. It also runs conferences, seminars and training courses and is a provider of electronic business information through its capital market databases and emerging markets information service.

For more than 30 years, Institutional Investor has recognized people and firms in the financial services industry for excellence. In 2020, they combined the surveys Extel (traditionally polled in March/April) with the Institutional Investor Survey Europe (traditionally polled in September), to a unified survey assessing executives by region.
